Beheaded Animals Found in Wheat Ridge Greenbelt

Wheat Ridge, CO ~ On October 5, 2014 at approximately 6:35 pm, police responded to 4355 Field St (Anderson Park) on the report of dead animals found in the Greenbelt. The animals were found on the walking path near Clear Creek between the baseball field and basketball court.

Upon arrival, officers found a male goat that had its head cut off. Alongside the goat were two birds with their heads cut off as well. The animals appeared to have been recently killed. The heads of the animals were not located at the scene. There is no suspect information at this time. Wheat Ridge Community Services Officers are attempting to locate the owner of the goat. If anyone has been in this area recently and observed any suspicious activity, or if anyone has any information regarding this incident, please contact the Community Services Team at (303) 235-2926 or call Crime Stoppers of Metro Denver at (720) 913-7867. Through Crime Stoppers, you may remain anonymous and receive up to $2000 for information that leads to solving this, or other crimes.
